Providing expertly guided tours of New York City for adult travel, senior, student and corporate groups, personal tours for individuals, families, specialized and non-profit organizations.

Robin is passionate and experienced leading tours covering New York history from pre-contact Native American (1100-1600) through colonization (1624-1776) the American Revolution (1776-1783) to the present day. A specialist on the city's many museums, with past experience in the museum profession as both curator and educator, Robin can guide effortlessly through art, natural history, science and history museums and historic sites. She is well-versed on all of NYC's iconic sights: Times Square, World Trade Center and 9/11 Memorial, Statue of Liberty and Ellis Islands, Greenwich Village, HighLine, Brooklyn Bridge - DUMBO, and more --anywhere in the five boroughs of New York! Tours can be customized to complement programs such as immigrant history, public parks and art, architecture, or tours that combine several areas of interest. A lifelong horsewoman, it was the equine that provided the opportunity for her visit to the Big Apple in the first place, Robin does include an equine reference on every tour.

Robin provides guided tours of New York City on coach/bus, on foot, by mass-transit MTA subway/bus, from car/SUV and boats on New York Harbor. Personal Tours can be arranged for a half day (3-4 hours), full day (6+ hours) or multiple days. All tours are designed to address various interests, ages, learning styles and abilities. Robin will meet guests at any location in New York City.

Certified member of the Guides Association of New York City and a city resident for more than 30 years have made Robin into a knowledgeable, engaging and entertaining guide for your guests. Robin is available for tours all year and times. Contact her directly for availability and rates.

Personal Tours can be arranged for one to eight people and are private. Group Tours are usually classified as 8 – 40 people and are private. Groups over 40 require two guides. Groups are kept to a minimum size to ensure a great experience for everyone.

Fees are calculated on an hourly rate based on group size, tour length and destinations.

No museum/site fees, food, beverage or travel costs are included, unless specified on agreed itinerary.

Travel and site arrangements must be made in advance by Tour Operator/Tour Director.

A deposit is required for personal and group tours.
