

Kimberly Gibson, CITM

707-410-6205

travelwithkingibson@gmail.com

Statement of Qualification My 10 years as a tour director in many locations around the world has prepared me.

Objective Tour directing position that fit into my current schedule. Especially off season work.

Education International Guide Academy, Denver, CO, Certified as an International Tour Director
California Baptist University, Riverside, CA

Experience Tour Director, Tauck World Discovery, 2017 - Present
Working currently as a tour director on Tauck's Grand New England tour, Michigan - Great Lakes and Mackinaw Island tour, California national Parks as well as Yellowstone to Dakota. In Europe - I'm currently running the Spring in the Netherlands tour (tulip tour) covering Netherlands and Belgium. Areas of expertise: California, Wyoming, South Dakota, Utah, Salt Lake City, Massachusetts, Vermont, New Hampshire, Maine, including Bar Harbor; Michigan, Rhine, Mosel Rivers and Dutch waterways. I am a quick learner and confident in my ability to pick up a new tour quickly.

Tour Director, Road Scholar, 2023 - Present
Working currently as a tour director on Road Scholar's Best of San Antonio, as well as their San Antonio/Austin tours.

Diamond Designer, Premier Designs Jewelry, Vacaville, CA 1996 - 2016
Skills perfected: Organization, sales, follow-up, public speaking, handling money, leading a team of 100+ people, marketing, event and retreat planning, writing and presenting training

Skills Microsoft Word, iOS Numbers, iOS Pages, & Econ

Travel Experience New Zealand, New England, Zion and Bryce National Parks, Yellowstone National Park, Hawaii, Palm Springs, San Francisco, Napa Valley, Yosemite & Sequoia National Parks Europe - Lived in Germany for 3 years and England for 1 year.

Interests Art history, outdoor adventure, being with my family, & ttraveling to places I've never been.

Availability I am available November - March; and in the nooks and crannies of peak travel season.