SOLVE A MYSTERY AND TAKE A
JOURNEY ON NEW YORK'S ONLY
SIGHTSEEING THEATER EXPERIENCE!

Tour Noir: Dame to Guide For combines historical thrills and film noir chills to create the only sightseeing theater production in New York City. The two hour tour (available for up to 25 people but hits a sweet spot at 15 people) begins in Hanover Square as humble guide, Jason Thompson attempts to lead a tour, when his ex-fiancé Veronica unexpectedly barges in and tasks the group with finding her missing husband!

No two tours are the same as every group is immersed in a film noir thriller, filled with witty bantering and snippy bickering as they help Jason and his alluring femme fatale solve clues and navigate the winding streets of downtown Manhattan while hitting famous landmarks like Wall Street, the Woolworth Building, City Hall, Chinatown, and Little Italy. A different spin for the traveler who doesn't want the same old New York tourist experience and craves history with a show. Love, sightseeing, and betrayal – it's all here in Tour Noir: A Dame to Guide For.

APRIL 1ST 2021 TO MARCH 31ST 2022 TOUR OPTIONS

Tour Noir Package – 2 hours – 2.5 miles walked

The tour begins in Hanover Square at 1pm where the group will be introduced to tour guide Jason and his alluring ex-fiance, Veronica. After being roped in to find Veronica's missing husband, the group will follow a web of clues from Delmonico's Steak House up to Wall Street stopping along the way to discuss Federal Hall and the Morgan Trust Building. Next, the group will weave up to City Hall and take a quick detour at the New York Times Offices to help solve the clue found on the way while discussing City Hall and the Woolworth Building.

The tour continues through the Tweed Courthouse, Five Points, and the Old Brewery before stopping at Doyers Street aka the Bloody Angle where the story encounters a sharp twist and the tour moves on to Little Italy hitting Umberto's Clam House and John Jovino Gun Shop. The show ends at Lt. Petrosino Square for a climatic song and dance conclusion.
